Figures should be centered when appropriate and should have clear labels. Images should be of high quality to remain readable when printed.

Manuscript Formatting

Citations and References. All sources used in the manuscript should be properly cited. For example, using an APA-style in-text citation:

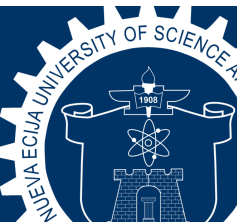

Parenthetical citation:

Project-based learning can strengthen students' ability to apply theoretical concepts to practical situations (Author, 2024).

Manuscript Formatting

Narrative citation:

Author (2024) explained that project-based learning helps students apply theoretical concepts to practical situations.

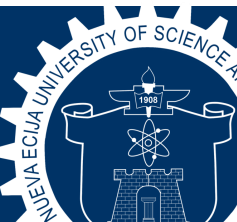

Manuscript Formatting

A References section should appear at the end of the manuscript.

Please ensure that every source cited in the text appears in the reference list and that every reference listed is actually cited in the manuscript, when required by the selected citation style.

Manuscript Formatting

Reference Page. The references should begin on a new page. The exact reference format depends on the required citation style.
